Part Two: Character Creation

11.10 Bards

“Where words fail, music speaks.”
~Hans Christian Andersen

Outlook

Bards are wanderers and collectors of tales. Because they seek those who adventure, they often become adventurers themselves. Because it is unseemly to brag, they tend to downplay their own involvement, giving credit to others, even when that credit isn't due. Bards are generally charismatic, and are often welcomed wherever they go. And where they are not welcomed, a few verses of song or strums of an instrument will open the door.

Like the Priests of the Word, bards collect news from around the world. But bards differ from priests in that, while priests place value in the truth, bards place more value in a well received tale. It is more important to get across the point than to get across every last exacting detail. It is important to note, though, that bards are not liars. They are entertainers. A common illustration is of a bard and a priest standing side by side with a trove of discovered book, dividing the volumes evenly like loot, with the bard collecting the words of fiction and the priest collecting the words of fact.

A note on Audience trait: Bards are often able, through their performance - whether it be singing, playing an instrument, reciting poetry, telling a tale, giving an inspiring speech, or other means - to affect those who hear them with both beneficial and harmful effects. When a bard is able to perform for an audience who is paying close attention, the Bard can inspire those listeners to become his personal Audience - in doing so, the Bard grants that Audience a particular trait that is unique to the Bard for an encounter. This gives the Bard the ability to cast beneficial magic upon his Audience without also doing so to the enemy his audience may be fighting.

Audience Traits must be given to Plot in advance of the event that the Bard intends to use it, and must be approved by plot. If no trait is approved, the Bard may choose to use the trait, Audience, by default. NPCs, unless working with the PCs, will not use this trait, so PC Bards need not worry about choosing this default trait and having abilities cast to Audience affect enemy NPCs.

More than one Bard may combine their abilities to create a mutual Audience. In this case, the Bards may choose to use the trait of "Audience," use one of the Traits one of the Bards already uses (and has Plot Approval for), or they may choose a new Trait (which must have been approved by Plot prior to the Event).

This Audience Trait will remain until a rest action (fifteen minutes) to refresh encounter skills is taken.

A note on casting requirements: Unless specified otherwise, Bards do not need their hands free to cast their spells/use their abilities. They cannot, however, use any abilities that require a Performance or Incant while Silenced, unless the skill explicitly says they can.

Bard Skills

Skill: Verse

---

Character Points: 5,10,15,20

Reset: Encounter

Prerequisite: None

Restriction:

Season: 1 2 3

Max Purchase: 5 6 7

Skill Points: None

Notes: This skill represents the number of special actions a character can take during each encounter. There are different types of Skill, and when a point of Skill is purchased, it is immediately assigned a type. Most characters will only require one, or at most two types of Skill.

The different Skill types are Magic (magicians), Faith (priests of the Word), Craft (witches), Imagination (sandmen), Brain Waves (men of science), Verse (bards) and Endurance (for everyone else).

Skill returns to full when the character is able to rest fully.

The cost of a single point of Skill is determined by the total number purchased, regardless of where the points were assigned after purchase.

Cottington Woods Player's Guide

Part Two: Character Creation

Example One: A character purchases a point of Skill for 5 character points and assigns it to Endurance so he can use his strong attack. He is also a magician, so he purchases a second point of Skill and assigns it to Magic. The first point of Magic is still the second point of Skill, and would 10 character points, not 5.

Example Two: A character has the Warrior header and has five Skill Points (costing 5 + 10+ 15 + 20 + 25) which have all been assigned to Endurance, and decides to purchase the Priest Header. His first point of Faith would cost 30 character points.

Resist Inspiration

---

Character Points: 5,10,15,20

Reset: Event

Prerequisite: None

Restriction:

Season:           1   2   3

Max Purchase:   3   4   5

Skill Points: None

Notes: You know how it's done, and therefore know when it's being done to you. You may call "Resist" to any one attack "by Inspiration", "by Presence" or "by Fear". This skill may be used while unconscious or dead, but not while drained.

But Wait!

Character Points: 15

Reset: Encounter

Prerequisite: Bard header

Restriction: None

Skill Points: 1 Verse

Notes: You can hold a potential foe at bay for a time with words alone. Gesture at an opponent and call out "By my Gesture, Repel by Presence" and begin talking to the opponent. You can maintain the gesture for as long as you talk to/with the opponent; if you stop talking, or if your conversation ends, you must drop the gesture immediately. You also must drop the gesture and make some final comment to clearly end the conversation before launching any attacks on your opponent, and you cannot advance on your opponent while using this skill. This skill works even on opponents who do not seem to be listening to you or do not understand you; your presence and charisma still have an effect.

You may have two of these skills active at one time (one for each hand), but otherwise cannot use other skills while this active, except to call defenses.

Desperate But Wait!

---

Character Points: 5

Reset: Event

Prerequisite: But Wait!

Restriction:

Season:           1   2   3

Max Purchase:   2   4   6

Skill Points: None

Notes: In times of desperation, a skilled Bard can draw upon his presence to force an enemy away, even when exhausted. This works exactly as the "But Wait!" skill, except that it costs no Verse to use. It is an event skill, and thus can only be used per time bought as a desperate measure. You can hold a potential foe at bay for a time with words alone. Gesture at an opponent and call out "By my Gesture, Repel by Presence" and begin talking to the opponent. You can maintain the gesture for as long as you talk to/with the opponent; if you stop talking, or if your conversation ends, you must drop the gesture immediately. You also must drop the gesture and make some final comment to clearly end the conversation before launching any attacks on your opponent, and you cannot advance on your opponent while using this skill. This skill works even on opponents who do not seem to be listening to you or do not understand you; your presence and charisma still have an effect.

You may have two of these skills active at one time (one for each hand), but otherwise cannot use other skills while this active, except to call defenses.

Music in the Air

Character Points: 0

Reset: Instant

Prerequisite: None

Restriction: None

Skill Points: None

Notes: Whether you are a musician or not, you understand something of how the Mists resonate to music. You can attune a musical focus to the Mists in the place where you dwell such that it fills the air with music to suit your mood. So long as you are present in your cabin, you can use a hidden or disguised music player. You can only play music that uses no obviously out-of-period instruments or musical styles (most symphonic and traditional music is okay); if you are not sure whether music might jar immersion in the game, you can check with staff. You should place the item your character has attuned as a musical focus on display in your cabin near where the music player is hidden, so that anyone setting up music can pretend to be attuning the focus. A musical focus can be anything that can produce music or a tone, from an instrument to a bell, or a crystal or set of crystals. Others can use your musical focus, but you have the final say and control. However, it is not impossible that some plot effects or characters may cause your musical focus to behave in unexpected ways.

Men of Science are able to build a music box that Bards can attune to their musical focus. If a Bard has this Musical Box, he can enable it to play his musical focus even when he is not present in the room.

In Song & Story

Character Points: 15

Reset: Between events

Prerequisite: Bard Header

Restriction: None

Skill Points: None

Notes: This is a bardic info skill. You are well versed in the stories, songs, legends, folklore, poetry, and oral traditions of The Written World, and what you don't already know, you can find out from your fellow bards. You can choose to use this info skill actively or passively after each event.

* If you use it passively, you will receive plot-chosen snippets of stories & the like in your character envelope at check in next event which may contain relevant plot information. (Sometimes we may use other delivery methods, such as an NPC visit, to give you your info.)

* If you use it actively, you can ask one question in your PEL about what tales and songs say on a particular topic. You will receive an answer at the next event you attend. Your answer may be an OOG note in your character envelope at check in, or an IG letter, or a contact who comes in person to give you your answer during game. There is no guarantee that the information you get will be true or accurate — but it is what you and your contacts could find on the topic through this avenue. Sometimes the answer may simply be that you couldn't find anything and should try other sources or methods. And be careful what you ask — bards are not always known for their discretion, and word may get around of who you are and what you're asking about.

Notes:

* If for any reason staff fails to give you a reply to your question at the next event, we will do our best to get you your answer at the following event. In the meantime, you can ask another question after the new event without "replacing" your old one; we will get you answers on both, so long as you ask no more than one question per event using this skill.

* You MUST submit your question by the PEL deadline after the event in order to receive an answer if using this skill actively. If we do not receive a question by the deadline, we will assume you are using the skill passively.

* Multiple characters may stack use of this skill together to ask the same question. If multiple uses are stacked, the information received will be greater than what would be discovered individually. If combining efforts, you must indicate that you are doing so when submitting the skill use in your PEL.

Hear Rumor: Streetwise

Character Points: 10

Reset: Between Event

Prerequisite: None

Restriction: None

Skill Points: None

Cottington Woods Player's Guide

Part Two: Character Creation

Notes: You have the right contacts and connections within the streets, bars, and less savory places of society, such that you always hear the latest things being whispered or gossiped about. You may hear “lower class” or “black market” rumors between events. You may choose to use this skill passively or actively. If used passively, Plot will provide relevant rumors or gossip you may hear on the streets. If you used actively, you must submit a question or topic that you are seeking to hear rumors about in your PEL by the deadline. This skill guarantees a response, but it is also possible the topic you are seeking information on may not be widely talked about. It is also possible that someone may take note of the questions you are asking.

Note:

* Multiple characters may stack use of this skill together to ask the same question. If multiple uses are stacked, the information received will be greater than what would be discovered individually. If combining efforts, you must indicate that you are doing so when submitting the skill use in your PEL.

Hear Rumor: High Society

---

Character Points: 10

Reset: Between Event

Prerequisite: None

Restriction: None

Skill Points: None

Notes: You have the right connections and contacts among the great families, the House Courts, and high-end establishments to hear the latest gossip among the most influential members of Houseland Society. You may hear “upper class” rumors between events. You may choose to use this skill passively or actively. If used passively, Plot will provide relevant rumors or gossip you may hear on the streets. If you used actively, you must submit a question or topic that you are seeking to hear rumors about in your PEL by the deadline. This skill guarantees a response, but it is also possible the topic you are seeking information on may not be widely talked about. It is also possible that someone may take note of the questions you are asking.

Note:

* Multiple characters may stack use of this skill together to ask the same question. If multiple uses are stacked, the information received will be greater than what would be discovered individually. If combining efforts, you must indicate that you are doing so when submitting the skill use in your PEL.

Gossip

---

Character Points: 15

Reset: Between Event

Prerequisite: One “Hear Rumor” skill

Restriction: None

Skill Points: None

Notes: Bards have a wide network of social contacts, and their business is the spreading of information. You can spread and disseminate rumors, stories, or anecdotes — true or false, slanderous or laudatory. In your PEL after each event, you can tell staff one thing you would like to “put out” and spread around. But beware — there is no guarantee that all who hear your rumor will believe it, and it is likely that any interested parties can trace it back to its source.

Note: You MUST submit your use for this skill by the PEL deadline of two weeks after the event in order for it to have an effect. The effect may not always be immediately obvious, but it is guaranteed to have some appropriate effect. This is an Active between-events skill.

Influence

---

Character Points: 10

Reset: Between events

Prerequisite: Bard header

Restriction: None

Skill Points: None

Notes: You have connections and social pull in certain circles. Sometimes, you can use this to your advantage in small ways. After each event, in your PEL, you can include a description of one way in which you hope to use your Influence, from the following options:

* To smooth over a possible insult, offense, or misunderstanding (caused by you or a friend)

Cottington Woods Player's Guide

Part Two: Character Creation

* To try to arrange an invitation for you or a friend to a certain event, gathering, or social group. This is not the Invitation skill. You cannot use this as an attempt to invite someone to Cottington Woods, or to arrange a meeting with an individual. This is intended to be, for example, a means to ensure you get invited to the King's Ball.

* To attempt to arrange an introduction for a friend. Note that it must be reasonable for your character to arrange this introduction.

* To spread the word about and raise the perceived status of a social event you or a friend are hosting

* To attempt to encourage/invite/attract appropriate suitors for your hand or that of a friend, or affect the chances of a given possible match.

* To influence the arts and/or what is perceived as "fashionable" (You cannot use this to spread rumors, info or tales, but if using Gossip or other such skill, you can use this to increase the effect of Influence.)

* You can at times use this to attempt the influence the general opinion or viewpoint of groups of individuals within the Woods or where you are living. Note that this is general - you could, for example, try to use this to increase hostilities towards wolves, but would be unlikely in succeeding to use this to make the Woodslander turn against the king. This use is more difficult, and may not always work as expected.

There is no guarantee whatsoever that your attempt will be successful, and it may even backfire if you reach too far or push too hard. In your PEL, you should provide as much detail as possible on how you hope to achieve this effect (what contacts you will be using, where you are focusing your attempts, how subtle you are trying to be, etc). The more modest and detailed your proposal is (and the more cool, interesting, and likely to bring results that will be fun for everyone), the likelier it is to work. While we generally appreciate creativity in the campaign, you cannot use this skill in ways other than the ones described above — it is not all-purpose influence. Your skill will have some degree of effect, though it may not get you the result you were hoping for, and is unlikely to go over poorly unless you make a clear gaffe. You may not see immediate results of your efforts, but we will do our best to show you any results as soon as it makes sense for them to occur in game.

* Multiple characters may stack use of this skill together for the same use. If multiple uses are stacked, the influence will be greater than what would be discovered individually. If combining efforts, you must indicate that you are doing so when submitting the skill use in your PEL.

Invitation

---

Character Points: 10

Reset: Between events

Prerequisite: Bard header

Restriction: None

Skill Points: None

Notes: Your influence and reputation are great enough that when you invite someone to visit or attend a social gathering, it is likely that they will come, or at least receive some kind of response. You may request to meet with an NPC character. You should be reasonably certain that your connections are good enough that you will receive some kind of response. The response of the invited individual will be appropriate to your relationship and the manner of your invitation. Include the IG text of your invitation in your PEL.

It is expected that appropriate hospitality be provided. You should also only use this skill on an NPC that you have a reasonable chance of inviting or know how to contact. The King of Faraway, for instance, is unlikely to stop by for tea, and sending an invitation to the Queen of the Faeries may prove more difficult unless you've bartered with a fairy to do it for you.

Use of this skill does not guarantee that the invitee will appear, only that they are aware that you have sent an invitation. You will usually get some form of response (such as a letter or a representative). Bear in mind that the response they send will be one that is appropriate for your relative stations, current relationship, and the manner of your invitation.

You do not need this skill to attempt to invite an NPC, but no response is guaranteed without use of this skill.

In some cases, you may not get a response at the next event (say, if the person playing the NPC is unavailable); if that occurs, you are free to use the skill again after the new event without "replacing" your old use. We will respond to both as soon as possible.

Soliloquy

Character Points: 5

Reset: Instant

Prerequisite: Bard header

Restriction: None

Cottington Woods Player's Guide

Part Two: Character Creation

Skill Points: None
Notes: When at 0 Hit Points, Unstable, or struck with a Death Effect, you may remain conscious for up to 10 seconds to deliver one last final line before falling back unconscious or dying. You cannot do anything other than speak in a quiet voice. This skill cannot be used when Stunned, Paralyzed, or otherwise incapacitated.

Bringing Music to the Hearth

Character Points: 10
Reset: Twilight
Prerequisite: Bard header
Restriction: None
Skill Points: 1 Verse
Notes: If you give a performance of some kind (singing, playing music, telling a story, giving an inspiring speech, reading poetry, etc.) that lasts at least three minutes where a Hearth Witch has established a Hearth, you may choose to call out one of the following if you receive some kind of applause or positive acknowledgement of your performance:
    "To the Room, Grant 1 Protection by Inspiration"
    "To the Room, Grant Defense Shield Fear by Inspiration"
    "To the Room, Expose Illusion by Inspiration"
    "To the Room, Cure <<Mental Trait>> by Inspiration" (where Mental Trait is any Mental trait defined in Core rules, such as: Awe, Confusion, Despair, Fear, Gloom, Inspiration, Madness, Presence, Trance, Will)

Audience

Character Points: 15
Reset: Encounter
Prerequisite: Bard header
Restriction:
Skill Points: 1 Verse
Notes: When a bard is able to perform for an audience who is paying close attention, the Bard can inspire those listeners to become his personal Audience - in doing so, the Bard grants that Audience a particular trait that is unique to the Bard for an encounter. This gives the Bard the ability to cast beneficial magic upon his Audience without also doing so to the enemy his audience may be fighting.
    Spend 60+ seconds performing and/or inspiring, then touch up to six individuals who were listening or watching the performance with a packet and call, "Encounter Imbue <<Audience Trait>> Trait by Inspiration." You also gain this Trait. This Audience Trait will remain until a rest action to refresh encounter skills is taken.
    The trait name must be approved in advance by plot. The trait "Audience" may be used. Note that NPC bards, unless working with PC bards, will not use the "Audience" trait (so enemies will not be able to benefit from abilities cast to this trait).

Greater Audience

Character Points: 10
Reset: Twilight
Prerequisite: Audience
Restriction:
    Season: 1 2 3
    Max Purchase: 2 3 e4
Skill Points: 1 Verse
Notes: As the Audience skill, but you may combine your performance with one or more other Bards to create a larger circle. You both must possess this skill, and both must expend a point of verse and participate in the performance. You cannot use this skill as a solo performance. At the end of the performance, call, "By my voice, Encounter Imbue <<Audience Trait>> Trait by Inspiration." The cooperating bards must agree on the trait name used, and each also gains the trait. This Audience Trait will remain until a rest action to refresh encounter skills is taken.
    The trait name must be approved in advance by plot. The trait "Audience" may be used. Note that NPC bards, unless working with PC bards, will not use the "Audience" trait (so enemies will not be able to benefit from abilities cast to this trait).

Cottington Woods Player's Guide

Part Two: Character Creation

NOTE: Anyone who hears this call will gain the trait. Be careful in using this in situations where your enemy may hear you, as they too will become part of your audience.

    Max Purchase:   1   2   3
Skill Points:       1 Verse
Notes:               Talk, perform, sing, etc. at a target while pointing at them and say "By My Gesture, Paralyze by Fascination." As long as you remain talking/performing and maintain the gesture, the target will remain paralyzed. You must drop the gesture if your target takes (or begins to take) any harmful effect (including a deathstrike). You cannot maintain this gesture for more than five minutes at a time, though if you have more than one casting you may immediately attempt to use a second casting when the first expires.
    You may have two of these skills active at one time (one for each hand), but otherwise cannot use other skills while this active, except to call defenses or to begin a deathstrike (once the deathstrike is begun, this skill must end).
